

PERMISSION TO PUBLISH INTERNET DOCUMENTS

Dear Parents/Guardians;

As part of your son's/daughter's educational program, (s)he may have the opportunity to publish documents and projects on the World Wide Web. These documents might include a personal home page, a story or poem, a graphic, a science or research project, or a collaborative project with other students locally or internationally or a group picture. Individuals with Internet access around the world will be able to view and possibly respond to your child's work by electronic mail. We think this is an exciting and enriching opportunity for our students.

We will publish these documents only with your written permission. Please consider the following options , then sign and return this form to your child's teacher. To see examples of work that is already published on the World Wide Web, visit the site http://_____ or ask your child's teacher. Thank you for your cooperation.

School District Guidelines:

- Published documents will not include the student's phone number, street address or box number, or names of other family members.
- Documents will not include any information which indicates the physical location of a student at a given time other than attendance at a particular school or participation in school activities.
- Documents will not contain objectionable material or point directly on indirectly to objectionable material.
- Documents must conform to School Board policies and established guidelines.

Additionally, documents must be edited and approved by the referring teacher and school principal prior to initial publication.
